THEOLOGIAN MANAGER OF WASEDA BASEBALL NINE

Waseda's baseball team is expected soon here during next day. Negotiations have been going on for some time between the local Japanese fans and Professor Aoyagi, who is at the head of the athletic club of Waseda University, and by the last mail they concluded a definite understanding. Professor Aoyagi, who is a graduate of Harvard University, and a well-known and quite popular educator in Japan, will come here as the head and manager of the team.

The has been the pastor of different Christian churches in Japan since his return from America and Europe where he spent a few years of study. Afterwards he left church work and is now occupying a chair at Waseda University, whose institution is shown as one of Oahu's universities.

FIGHTERS READY

FOR THE GONG

Summons to Box Sarcone—Wahine to Scrap McCollough
Fifteen Rounds.

Tonight is the time set for the big fistic entertainment to be pulled off at the Princess skating rink, under the auspices of Jack McFadden, who was at one time a stellar attraction in the lightweight class. Mae is authority for the statement that the six men to appear in the three bouts are all in fine trim and will positively appear. The change from the Orpheum, now in rains, to the skating rink will not interfere with the program in any way. The first bout will start at eight-fifteen sharp.

McCollough, the Fort Shafter soldier with the iron jaw, and Wahine, the native whirlwind, will put on the principal event of the evening, and they are scheduled to go fifteen rounds, the longest distance either has essayed to work in the ring. McCollough has been beneath the pallie on a number of occasions, and no one can say he is a quitter, even when he appears to be getting the worst of it. McCollough says he will win, and Wahine is equally positive that he will be the victor.

Sarcone, the Camp Verry bugler, who has also been before the public a number of times, will contest for six rounds with Samuel Simmons, a clever youngster from the United States revenue cutter Thetis. Simmons is reported to be a very classie little fighter, and Sar-cone is certainly one of these.

Jim Hogan, a new Hawaiian fighter, is scheduled to go four rounds with "Limey" Richards, another camp Verry boxer. "Limey" is not new to the ring.

The sale of seats is going on very

SPRING SUITS

WE are ever careful not to overlook the needs of men who effect clothes designed along conservative lines, but who, nevertheless, demand a certain portion of smartness and a world of absolutely good tailoring. In the standard sack we have a garment which, while complying with the demands of the quiet dresser in general outline, has broad handsome shoulders, a perfect neck, and is made from either subdued or sprightly fabrics.
